

Jen Donnelly joined the Commission in May 2014. A multi-talented and experienced Administrative Officer, she oversees the Commissions finances, human resources and most of the day-to-day operational and support elements that keep the organization running smoothly.

Prior to joining the Commission, Jen worked for the Chesapeake Bay Foundation for 7 years as Office Manager and Executive Assistant to various Executive Directors and Vice Presidents. She also worked for an IT firm as there Operations & Contract Manager for 5 years.

Jen is a resident of Arnold, Maryland, with her husband Doug and her two children, Emma and Ryan. She enjoys the beach and coaching her kids in their various sports.